Ireland will remain a core member of the EU single market & Euro currency.

Only English speaking country in the Eurozone.

Ireland is one of the countries with the most positive views of membership of the EU, 85% compared to EU28 of 62%.

Proportionally Ireland has the 3rd highest international workforce in Europe. Today, 15% of Ireland’s workforce is international.

Strong Sustained Economic Growth

- IMD ranks Ireland 12th in the world for overall competitiveness.
- Ireland has had the fastest growing economy in the Eurozone for the past four years (2014-2017).
- Quarterly growth of 2.5% in Q2 2018 versus Eurozone average of 0.4%.
- High levels of investor confidence in Irish Economy - Sovereign debt ratings upgraded
- Irish bond yields are trading below 1% and in line with core European sovereign yields.
- Additional capital expenditure to 2021 will see capital public investment in Ireland move to among the highest in the EU.

Real GDP Growth Rate

National and International forecasts predict continued strong GDP growth into 2019.

- Some leading investments secured include:
  - Over 2.26m people are now at work in Ireland, the highest level since 2008. For every 10 jobs lost in recession 9 have been replaced.
  - Unemployment rate 5.8% in Q2 2018 – lowest in 10 years. Ireland’s unemployment rate below EU (8.8%) and Eurozone (8.1%) average.
  - Long-term unemployment rate now at 2.0%.
- IMD World Competitiveness Yearbook 2018 ranks Ireland 1st for flexibility and adaptability of its workforce.
- Ireland has the youngest population in the EU with 33% under the age of 25 (EU 28 - 26.8%).

Labour Market Continues to Strengthen

- Ireland will remain a core member of the EU single market & Euro currency.
- Only English speaking country in the Eurozone.
- Ireland is one of the countries with the most positive views of membership of the EU, 85% compared to EU’s 85%.
- Proportionally Ireland is the 3rd highest international workforce in Europe. Today, 15% of Ireland’s workforce is international.

FDI Continues to Grow Strongly

- IDA clients account for 10.2% of total employment in Ireland with 58% of this employment outside of Dublin.
- 210,443 people directly employed by FDI Companies.
- Multinationals make a significant contribution to the Irish Economy: 10.2% of total employment.

Some leading investments secured include:

National and International forecasts predict continued strong GDP growth into 2019.

- Over 2.26m people are now at work in Ireland, the highest level since 2008. For every 10 jobs lost in recession 9 have been replaced.
- Unemployment rate 5.8% in Q2 2018 – lowest in 10 years. Ireland’s unemployment rate below EU (8.8%) and Eurozone (8.1%) average.
- Long-term unemployment rate now at 2.0%.
- IMD World Competitiveness Yearbook 2018 ranks Ireland 1st for flexibility and adaptability of its workforce.
- Ireland has the youngest population in the EU with 33% under the age of 25 (EU 28 - 26.8%).

Labour Market Continues to Strengthen

- Over 2.26m people are now at work in Ireland, the highest level since 2008. For every 10 jobs lost in recession 9 have been replaced.
- Unemployment rate 5.8% in Q2 2018 – lowest in 10 years. Ireland’s unemployment rate below EU (8.8%) and Eurozone (8.1%) average.
- Long-term unemployment rate now at 2.0%.
- IMD World Competitiveness Yearbook 2018 ranks Ireland 1st for flexibility and adaptability of its workforce.
- Ireland has the youngest population in the EU with 33% under the age of 25 (EU 28 - 26.8%).

FDI Continues to Grow Strongly

- IDA clients account for 10.2% of total employment in Ireland with 58% of this employment outside of Dublin.
- 210,443 people directly employed by FDI Companies.
- Multinationals make a significant contribution to the Irish Economy: 10.2% of total employment.

Some leading investments secured include:

National and International forecasts predict continued strong GDP growth into 2019.